Eleven acts selected to appear in OLD Variety Show Sept. 23

By Melissa Rogers, Ashley Buhr and Amy Shirey

Orange Letter Days (OLD) homecoming preparations continued Wednesday after school as the OLD Variety Show auditions were held in the auditorium.

Many acts tried out, but the group was cut down to 11 who will be presented in the show.

The acts that made the cut include acts named False Alarm, the Highsteppers, the WHS Drum Line, the Senior Girls and Two Guys and The Break Dancers and individuals including teacher Marc Murren, seniors Adam Broin, Ruben Rodriguez, Peterson Xayavong and Elisabeth Hunstad; junior Trevor Cook and freshman Lindsey Trett.

Senior Amy Dirks, a member of a group of dancers who made the cut, said things went well because she and her friends all worked together on their act.

"I think auditions went pretty well considering we got that many senior girls to work together," Dirks said.

Dirks said she thinks her group still needs some practice and hopes for a good time.

"We just hope to have a great time," she said.

Homecoming adviser Sandy Hoff said she hopes the show will be a great time for everyone.

"The variety show auditions went very well," Hoff said. "We had a lot of talent and with a lot of talent it was hard to cut to 11."

The variety show will be presented during OLD week Sept. 23 before coronation and again to the student body on homecoming Friday, Sept. 24.

Warrior soccer teams in action tonight

By Josh McKinney and Hannah Hitchcock

The Warrior boys and girls soccer teams will be in action again tonight in two locations.

The boys soccer teams will host Southwest Christian from Edgerton, Minn., on Yankton Trail Field 11 with junior varsity playing at 6 p.m. and the varsity around 8 p.m.

The girls soccer teams will venture to Vermillion to take on the Tanagers at 4 p.m. and 6 p.m. today.

Each team played well against their cross town rivals O'Gorman with the boys taking home a 3-0 win and the girls falling short with a 2-0 loss in their most recent games on Tuesday at Howard Wood Field.

Senior Aaron McGuire said Southwest Christian is an unknown to his team.

"We have never played this team before, but if we play hard and as a team we should do well," McGuire said.

Third party candidates offer real choice

As the 2004 Presidential election looms forward, the focus seems to be only on the leading political parties—Republican and Democrat—while third party candidates are being overshadowed by all the glitz and glam.

Here is a rundown of this year's prominent third party candidates for president.

Hear me... NOW

Brian P. Mann

Green Party
David Cobb/Pat Lamache
The Greens are advocates for the working people standing strong for equal rights, a living wage and health-care for all.

Libertarian Party Micheal Badarik/Richard Campagna The Libertarians are committed to protecting America's heritage of freedom by campaigning to ensure individual liberty, strengthen the free market economy, as well as a movement toward a foreign policy of non-intervention, peace and free trade.

Reform (A.K.A. Independent) Party Ralph Nader/ Peter Miguel Camejo Nader proposes solutions to the current erosion of civil liberties, wasteful spending of tax dollars for military purposes and the Iraq quagmire. He also believes in the ideals of democracy, civic duty and participation for the public good.

Although these are just some of the third party candidates for the 2004 Presidential election, they nonetheless show the wide range of choices we have as Americans.

I only hope we can make the right choice, whether it be Democrat, third party or Republican, so that we can move into a safer tomorrow.

Senior Brian P. Mann thinks Ross Perot rocks!

The tennis teams will take on the Kernels in Mitchell this afternoon.

Give your brain a workout

Think you are smart? Try these brain teasers on for size!

1. If Susan is 10, Arabella is 20, and Jim and Neal are both five, but Richard is 10, how much is Jennifer by the same system?
2. If two hours ago it was as long after one o'clock in the afternoon as it was before one o'clock in the morning, what time would it be now?
3. What is at the beginning of eternity, the end of time, the beginning of every end and the end of every place?
4. The Lone Ranger rode into town on Friday. He stayed five consecutive days and left on Friday. How could this be?
5. How much dirt is in a hole that is three feet deep, and six inches in diameter?
6. Why is it better to have round manhole covers than square ones?
7. You throw away the outside and cook the inside. Then you eat the outside and throw away the inside. What did you eat?

Answers: 1. Jennifer is 15, in a system that awards five for each syllable. 2. Nine o'clock. Since there are 12 hours between the two times, and half of that time is six, then the halfway mark would have to be 7 o'clock. 3. The Letter "e." 4. Friday was the name of his horse. 5. None. A hole only has air in it, no dirt. 6. A square manhole cover can be turned and dropped down the diagonal of the manhole. A round manhole cannot. 7. An ear of corn.
